

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION 7

CREATE MORE SALES OPPORTUNITIES 13

1. Segment your book by age group. 14
2. Think in terms of household characteristics. 15
3. Create a referral network from current clients. 18
4. Get more referrals through emotional connections. 19
5. Give the older client help when you ask for referrals. 20
6. Tap the grandparents market. 21
7. Find opportunities with adult children. 23
8. Prospecting 101: Look for working seniors. 24
9. Use more powerful cold-calling techniques. 25

MAKE YOUR OFFICE PART OF THE SALE 27

10. Use seniors-friendly office decorations. 28
11. Create a positive physical setting. 28
12. Be private. 29
13. Control office noise. 29
14. Have comfortable seating. 30
15. Have adequate lighting. 30
16. Display pictures of your children or grandchildren. 30
17. Keep a pillow in your office. 31
18. Control the room temperature. 31
19. Beware of potential accident-causers. 31
20. Provide clear directions to your office. 32

MANAGING A CLIENT MEETING 33

21. Set expectations. 33
22. Control the use of time. 34
23. Time for a break. 34
24. Meet in the morning. 34
25. Get an adult child to take notes. 35

CONNECT EMOTIONALLY 37

26. Establish trust first. 37
27. Stop trying to impress with your investment knowledge. 38
28. How to connect emotionally with older clients. 39
29. Drive client action: the quest for autonomy. 41
30. Treat aging clients as whole persons 42
31. Acknowledge hearing what the client says. 43
32. Be supportive. 44
33. Don't multitask. 44
34. Talk less, listen more. 45
35. Display patriotic symbols. 46
36. Sell to the age clients think they are. 47

IMPROVE CLIENT COMPREHENSION 49

37. Help older clients remember more of what you tell them. 49
38. Key your presentations to the ways clients learn. 50
39. Use metaphors. 52
40. Draw them a picture. 53
41. Don't let stress interfere with information processing. 53
42. Why older clients don't remember what you tell them. 54

MAKING THE SALE 57

43. Sell in shades of gray instead of black and white. 57
44. Sell with the Rule of Three. 59
45. Don't be a talking head. 60
46. Elicit objections the right way. 61
47. Connect with the right brain for more sales. 63
48. Never use fear as a motivator. 65
49. Why older clients sometimes say, "I'll think about it." 66
50. Listen to "why." 68
51. Relate new concepts to what they already know: use anchors. 69
52. Show them how to do it. 70

BOOMERS 71

53. Get boomers to invest more for retirement. 72
54. Give them options and let them decide. 73
55. Make recommendations that lead to self-fulfillment. 74
56. Cater to their causes. 74

- 57. Use altruism to strike a responsive chord. 74
- 58. Provide lots of information. 75
- 59. Don't be put off by doubt and suspicion. 75
- 60. Boomers don't expect to get old; don't sell against their denial. 75

WOMEN 79

- 61. Sell better to boomer women. 79
- 62. How to connect to women. 81
- 63. Understand differences in age groups. 83
- 64. Treat all questions with respect. 83
- 65. Focus on the family, particularly family financial security. 84
- 66. Connect with the right side. 84
- 67. Show you care about them as a person. 84
- 68. Don't confuse boomer women with their mothers. 85
- 69. Women in their late 50s, 60s and beyond expect more direction. 85
- 70. Sell independence to boomer women. 86

DEALING WITH RISK 89

- 71. How to sell in tough times. 89
- 72. Key your sales efforts to generational differences. 91
- 73. Focus on the effects of individual differences. 92
- 74. Focus clients' minds on long-term tangible goals. 92
- 75. How to move clients toward riskier assets. 93
- 76. Sell risk differently by age. 94
- 77. Fight the mental shortcuts that get older investors in trouble. 94
- 78. Fight the mental shortcuts that produce objections. 96

LIFE EVENTS 97

- 79. Let clients' lives produce business. 97
- 80. Market to life events. 98
- 81. Maintain regular contact. 99
- 82. Plant memory seeds. 100
- 83. Connect with the client's life events and emotions. 100

MORE POWERFUL FACE-TO-FACE MEETINGS 103

- 84. Be careful when shaking hands. 103
- 85. Act like a grown up. 104
- 86. You are not being heard: do something about it. 104

- 87. Project your voice. 105
- 88. Stay at the level of the client's eyes. 105
- 89. Signal your meaning. 106
- 90. Respond visually. 106
- 91. Computers: talk, show, talk. 106
- 92. Watch for glare on computer screens. 107
- 93. Watch your face 107
- 94. Carry a wide barrel pen. 108

IMPROVE YOUR TELEPHONE SKILLS 109

- 95. Rephrase your statements. 109
- 96. Clarify objections. 110
- 97. Slow your delivery. 110
- 98. Practice speaking. 110
- 99. Let the telephone ring. 111
- 100. Keep it simple. 111
- 101. Become more empathetic when listening. 111

About The Authors 115